YOU MUST ATTACH A COPY OF ANY POWER OF ATTORNEY YOU WANT TO REMAIN IN EFFECT.

Not applicable -- AJP will not issue stock.

7 State the qualifications necessary for membership in the organization; the classes of membership (with the number of members in each class); and the voting rights and privileges received. BYLAWS
OF
AMERICAN JUSTICE PARTNERSHIP
(formed under the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act)

(January 26, 2005)

ARTICLE I
Name and Location

Section 1.01 Name. The name of the Corporation is American Justice Partnership.

Section 1.02 Location. The principal office of the Corporation shall be located within or without the District of Columbia, at such place as the Board of Directors shall from time to time designate. The Corporation may maintain additional offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may designate. The Corporation shall continuously maintain within the District of Columbia a registered office at such place as may be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II
Board of Directors

Section 2.01 Power of Board. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.02 Number of Directors. The number of directors of the Corporation shall be three (3). The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by action of the Board of Directors. No decrease in the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. The number of directors shall never be less than three (3).

Section 2.03 Election and Term of Directors. The initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of those persons named in the Articles of Incorporation. Each Director shall hold office until the next annual meeting of the Board and until his successor is elected and qualified, or until his earlier death, resignation or removal. At each annual meeting of the Board, the Board of Directors shall elect the directors.

Section 2.04 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors, may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office though less than a quorum. A director elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office and until his successor is elected.

Section 2.05 Removal of Directors. A director may be removed with or without cause at any time by an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office.

Section 2.06 Resignations. Except as may be restricted by law, any director of the Corporation may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time is specified therein then upon delivery. Unless otherwise specified in such notice, no acceptance of such resignation shall be necessary to make it effective.

Section 2.07 Quorum and Action by the Board of Directors. Unless a greater proportion is required by law, a majority of the number of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, provided, however, that in no event shall a quorum consist of less than one-third of the number of directors so fixed. Except as otherwise provided by law or by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, the act of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board.

Section 2.08 Meetings of the Board of Directors. The Directors shall elect a Chairman to preside over all meetings of the Board of Directors. Meetings of the Board of Directors, annual or special, may be called by the Chairman and may be held within or without the District of Columbia. Written notice stating the place, date and time of a meeting shall be delivered to all directors at least two (2) business days before the date of such meeting.

A director's attendance at any meeting shall constitute waiver of notice of such meeting, excepting such attendance at a meeting by the director for the purpose of objecting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of such meeting.

Section 2.09 Informal Action by Directors; Meetings by Conference Telephone. Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if all directors consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. The resolution and the written consents thereto by the directors shall be filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors.

Unless otherwise restricted by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, any or all directors may participate in a meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee of the Board of Directors by means of conference telephone or by any means of communications by which all persons participating in the meeting are able to communicate with one another, and such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

ARTICLE III

Committees

Section 3.01 Committees; Authority. The Board of Directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors then in office, may designate and appoint one or more committees, each of which shall consist of two or more directors, which committees, to the extent provided in the resolution, shall have and exercise the authority of the Board of Directors of the Corporation. Other committees not having and exercising the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Corporation may be designated and appointed by a resolution adopted by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

The designation and appointment of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the Board of Directors or any individual director of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law.

ARTICLE IV

Officers, Agents and Employees

Section 4.01 Officers. The Board of Directors shall elect or appoint a President, a Secretary and a Treasurer, and it may, if it so determines, elect or appoint such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary. Any two or more offices may be held by the same person except the offices of President and Secretary.

Section 4.02 Term of Office; Removal and Resignation. Each officer shall hold office for the term (not exceeding three years) for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor has been elected or appointed. Any officer may be removed with or without cause by the Board of Directors; provided, however, that removal of an officer shall be without prejudice to his contract rights, if any, and the election or appointment of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights. Except as may be restricted by law, any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or if no time is specified therein then upon delivery. Unless otherwise specified in such notice, no acceptance of such resignation shall be necessary to make it effective.

Section 4.03 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring may be filled by the Board of Directors. An officer elected to fill a vacancy shall be elected for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

Section 4.04 Powers and Duties of Officers. Subject to the control of the Board of Directors, all officers as between themselves and the Corporation shall have such authority and perform such duties in the management of the property and affairs of the Corporation as may be provided in these Bylaws or by resolution of the Board of Directors and, to the extent not so provided, as generally pertain to their respective offices. Officers may delegate all or part of their powers and duties to agents or employees of the Corporation.

President. The President shall perform such duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors may determine from time to time. The President shall be responsible for the management of the business of the Corporation, shall report to the Board of Directors, and shall see that all orders and resolutions of the Board of Directors are carried into effect, all subject to the general control of the Board of Directors, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Secretary. The Secretary shall be responsible for the keeping of an accurate record of the proceedings of all meetings of the Board of Directors, shall give or cause to be given all notices in accordance with these Bylaws or as required by law, and, in general, shall perform all duties customary to the office of Secretary.

Treasurer. The Treasurer shall have the custody of, and be responsible for, all funds and securities of the Corporation. He shall keep or cause to be kept complete and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements of the Corporation, and shall deposit all monies and other valuable property of the Corporation in the name and to the credit of the Corporation in such banks or depositories as the Board of Directors may designate. Whenever required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall render a statement of accounts. He shall at all reasonable times exhibit the books and accounts to any officer or director of the Corporation, and shall perform all duties incident to the office of Treasurer, subject to the supervision of the Board of Directors, and such other duties as shall from time to time be assigned by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall be responsible for directing and overseeing all the financial activities of the corporation including preparation of current financial reports as well as summaries and forecasts for future growth and general economic outlook.

Section 4.05 Agents and Employees. The Board of Directors, or by its authority the President, may appoint agents and employees who shall have such authority and perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may remove any agent or employee at any time with or without cause. Removal without cause shall be without prejudice to such person's contract rights, if any, and the appointment of such person shall not itself create contract rights.

ARTICLE V

Miscellaneous

Section 5.01 Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Corporation shall be the calendar year or such other period as may be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 5.02 Checks, Notes and Contracts. The Board of Directors shall determine who shall be authorized from time to time on the Corporation's behalf to sign checks, drafts, or other orders for payment of money; to sign acceptances, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness; to enter into contracts; or to execute and deliver other documents and instruments.

Section 5.03 Books and Records to be Kept. The Corporation shall keep correct and complete books and records of account and minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Directors and any committee having any of the authority of the Board of Directors.

Section 5.04 Amendment of Articles and Bylaws. The Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws may be amended by an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors then in office.

Section 5.05 Indemnification and Insurance. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Corporation may indemnify any director or officer, any former director or officer, any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, and may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, indemnify any employee against any and all expenses and liabilities actually and necessarily incurred by him or imposed on him in connection with any claim, action, suit, or proceeding (whether actual or threatened, civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, including appeals) to which he may be or is made a party by reason of being or having been such director, officer, or employee; subject to the limitation, however, that there shall be no indemnification in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such claim, action, suit, or proceeding to be guilty of a criminal offense or liable to the Corporation for damages arising out of his own negligence or misconduct in the performance of a duty to the Corporation.

Amounts paid in indemnification of expenses and liabilities may include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and other fees; costs and disbursements; and judgments, fines, and penalties against, and amounts paid in settlement by, such director, officer, or employee. The Corporation may advance expenses to, or where appropriate may itself, at its expense, undertake the defense of, any director, officer, or employee; provided, however, that such director, officer, or employee shall undertake to repay or to reimburse such expense if it should be ultimately determined that he is not entitled to indemnification under this Section.

The provisions of this Section shall be applicable to claims, actions, suits, or proceedings made or commenced after the adoption hereof, whether arising from acts or omissions to act occurring before or after adoption hereof.

The indemnification provided by this Section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director, officer, or employee may be entitled under any statute, Bylaw, agreement, vote of the Board of Directors, or otherwise and shall not restrict the power of the Corporation to make any indemnification permitted by law.

The Board of Directors may authorize the purchase of insurance on behalf of any director, officer, employee, or other agent against any liability asserted against or incurred by him which arises out of such person's status as a director, officer, employee, or agent or out of acts taken in such capacity, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the person against that liability under law.

If any part of this Section shall be found in any action, suit, or proceeding to be invalid or ineffective, the validity and the effectiveness of the remaining parts shall not be affected.

Part II, Question 1 – Activities of the Organization

The American Justice Partnership is a national nonprofit coalition of leading corporations, think tanks, foundations, trade associations, individuals and organizations advocating for legal reform at the state level.

Much of the work of the courts focuses on civil litigation liability issues that directly affect the ability of companies to create jobs, compete in world markets and grow the American economy.

American Justice Partnership believes it is in the nation's interest to restore fairness and predictability to the legal system so that the rights of individuals and businesses to grow businesses and jobs are not threatened by abusive lawsuits and unreasonable jury awards.

American Justice Partnership was formed to achieve three goals:

1. Enhancement of the public's understanding with respect to the importance of legal reform and the need to become politically involved
2. Enactment of legislation and adoption of state court rules that substantially will reduce the perverse incentives for filing frivolous lawsuits, which are causing harm to American businesses and consumers while mainly providing a benefit to trial lawyers
3. Creation of a climate, state by state, in which citizens are educated about the importance of the rule of law, and how public officials can and do impact the society by their actions, policies and decisions related to civil justice.

Who We Are

The American Justice Partnership is a national organization dedicated to winning legal reform in the states. AJP is run by campaign professionals who achieve results in battles that can deliver a meaningful return on investment. AJP typically enacts programs in partnership with a network of over 60 state and national partners.

What We Do

AJP designs, funds and implements high-impact campaigns to achieve legal reform at the state level. AJP deploys dynamic political programs at critical junctures in support of legislative objectives and legal reform advocates seeking offices like state legislature, attorney general and supreme court.

Why We Partner

We collaborate with any number of over 60 state or national partners on each project. AJP partnerships leverage the best of local knowledge and national expertise into one-of-a-kind campaigns that deliver impact and strengthen local partners while avoiding the mistakes that typify some out-of-state efforts.

How We Win

AJP has nearly a decade of experience in beating the trial bar on major issues. They engage every fight, big or small, with a take-no-prisoners approach. We know their methods and how to fight back. We play to win.

In A Nutshell, We Play Hardball:

- When our help can tip the balance.
- In states where major legal reform legislation is at stake.
- Where the trial bar, unions and other liberal opponents of legal reform engage in elections for the state legislature, attorney general and supreme court.
- Where we have credible local organizations as our partners.

It is this combination of experience, approach and targeting that allows AJP to succeed in achieving legal reform at the state level.

Setting A Standard

America's legal system is a maze of contradictory rules that differ in nearly every state. Businesses may face a predictable and reasonable system in one state but unfairness and uncertainty in another.

This uncertainty hinders job creation, increases costs for consumers and makes it harder to earn a fair profit. The current system hurts workers, employers, consumers and even legitimate victims. The only winners are predatory trial lawyers who manipulate the system to their own personal ends. AJP is fighting that.

Mission

The American Justice Partnership works to improve the fairness and predictability of the legal environment at the state level.

Achieving our goals

- AJP creates an environment in which legal reform champions can be elected to high offices like governor, legislature, attorney general and state supreme court.
- AJP enacts and protects state legislation that increases fairness and predictability often resulting in more reasonable litigation costs and awards and an improved jobs environment by limiting the abusive lawsuits brought by the trial bar.
- AJP fights lawsuit abuse and jackpot justice by opposing bad laws, bad judges and bad lawyers.

AJP is unique among the leading legal reform organizations.

Transparency Rules

AJP welcomes active engagement from supporters and partners. We not only regularly seek their input, but we act on it. They help us identify priority projects that can improve the bottom line of fixing broken courts.

Winning Campaign Professionals

AJP is run by senior campaign professionals with decades of experience in high stakes winner-take-all battles. They have run campaigns for president, governor, senate, state supreme court and dozens of high profile issue efforts. AJP delivers a meaningful return on investment with clearly defined metrics.

Dollars And Sense

AJP is an extremely low overhead operation that is free of expensive bureaucracy with limited bricks and mortar. We put resources into high impact programs in the states where they can do the most good. Every AJP initiative is based on promotion and protecting legal reform policies and policy makers. We focus on legal reform and legal reform only.

Giving Partnership A Good Name

The AJP partnership model has succeeded because we can quickly fill the gaps that often undermine efforts against a dynamic opponent like the trial bar. We have no pride of authorship. When it makes sense, we take the lead; when it doesn't, we provide critical support. We excel at assessing each opportunity to find the right approach.

AJP Leadership

Recognizing the glaring need for an organized effort to support legal reform efforts at the state level, Home Depot co-founder Bernie Marcus, former Governor John Engler and nationally recognized legal reform leader Steve Hantler founded AJP. Each brought a unique perspective to AJP allowing them to see the flaws of the legal system and where it needed to be corrected.

Current AJP President Dan Pero brings over 30 years of political and policy experience to the cause. His team of battle tested communication and campaign experts has a proven record of success in going toe-to-toe with the trial bar.

Dan Pero

President, American Justice Partnership

Dan Pero is President of the American Justice Partnership, a nationwide coalition to advocate for legal reform at the state level. Mr. Pero is a leading expert in political campaigns and issues management with more than 30 years experience in state government, grassroots organizing, communications and public affairs and was named Michigan's best Republican political consultant of the past 50 years by the Michigan Political History Society.

In 2004, he was executive director of the highly successful state legal reform effort that has since become the American Justice Partnership, an affiliate of the National Manufacturers Association.

Mr. Pero served as Chief of Staff and Campaign Manager for former three-term Michigan Governor John Engler. The legal reform successes achieved in Michigan are widely viewed as the definitive model for legal reform at the state level.

Mr. Pero managed the 1996 presidential campaign for former Tennessee Governor Lamar Alexander and served as a strategist, media producer and consultant to candidates for President of the United States, U.S. Senate and House of Representatives and for successful ballot initiatives in Texas and Michigan.

He was a founding partner of Sterling Corporation, a public affairs, issues management and political consulting firm based in Lansing, MI. Prior to Sterling, Mr. Pero was Managing Director of the Michigan office of Weber-Shandwick Worldwide, then the largest public relations company in the world, where he provided clients with message development, branding, marketing, communications and strategic counsel.

Previously, Mr. Pero served as vice-president of public affairs for Eckerd Corporation, one of the nation's largest retail drug store companies, where he was corporate spokesperson and managed government and pharmacy relations, directed internal and external communications, and administered Eckerd's political action committee.

He was a member of the Western Michigan University Board of Trustees for 9 years and served as Chairman in 2007. Mr. Pero also was a gubernatorial appointee to the Michigan Judicial Tenure Commission, the Pontiac Stadium Building Authority and the Michigan Film Commission. Mr. Pero has also been an Adjunct Professor at Michigan State University where he taught campaign planning, message development and communications. He earned a Bachelor of Science at Western Michigan University and is a graduate of the Harvard School of State and Local Executives.

Dan lives with his wife, Colleen, and their two children in Laingsburg, Michigan.

CEO Alarm: The Real Cost Of State Liability

Excessive tort litigation costs are estimated at $589 billion, but state-level liability lawsuits cost more than just indemnities, legal fees and G/A. There are substantial hidden costs.

Liability Crisis Hidden Costs

Damage to share value and reputation. Increasingly, the plaintiffs bar is mounting PR campaigns and analyst briefings designed to drive down share value to force companies to settle even when they've done nothing wrong:

- Merck lost $40 billion in value after the filing of Vioxx lawsuits.
- The HMO industry lost $12 billion in value in one day after a Dickie Scruggs press conference.
- Tort lawsuits reduce stockholder wealth by $684 billion each year.

Higher litigation reserves, insurance costs and employee health care costs.

- $124 billion of total health care costs is attributable to defensive medicine/litigation concerns. The lions share falls on employers that provide employee health insurance.

Stunted innovation/lost sales.

- Inhibited research and development results in a $367 billion annual loss in sales of new products.

The Bottom Line Liability Reform Objectives

- 1. Reduce the risk of "bet the company" lawsuits and lawsuits that threaten share value, company reputation or product image.
- 2. Slow the increase and eventually reduce unwarranted litigation costs.

Liability Reform Strategies

- 1. Selection of "rule of law" state court judges, governors, legislators and attorneys general.
- 2. Legislation and court rules that end perverse incentives for meritless lawsuits and restore fairness and

- predictability.
3. Engage the public so they understand how a broken legal system hurts them every day.

LEGAL REFORM MID-YEAR UPDATE

A special report to AJP Funders

July 10, 2009

As we predicted, 2009 has seen a reinvigorated plaintiffs' bar attempt to put legal reformers on defense in many parts of the country. Despite their renewed attacks on advocates of balance in our legal system, a mid-year review finds reformers have enjoyed some major victories, withstood several close calls and suffered a couple of disappointments. AJP helped several state partners develop and deliver compelling messages that highlight the value of legal reform during these challenging economic times. When given the binary choice of more jobs or more lawsuits, public support swells for jobs and reform.

AJP focused these types of messages in six key states where the promotion or defense of legal reform legislation was a critical part of the legislative session. The following summary represents the states where AJP provided financial support and issue advocacy programs.

Oklahoma

The American Justice Partnership congratulates our partner, the Oklahoma Chamber of Commerce, who won passage of the omnibus legal reform bill known as HB 1603. AJP collaborated with the Oklahoma Chamber on strategy and message development on behalf of a historic win that will bring sanity to Oklahoma's legal system. HB 1603 features a package of over 23 comprehensive reforms that will return fairness and balance to the state's court system.

Reforms include:

- Extensive Class Action Reform
- Appeal Bond Cap - $25 million & no appeal bond required on punitive damage appeals
- Mandatory Dismissal for Late Service (180 days)
- Summary Judgment – Adopted Federal Rules
- Redefining of “Frivolous” Lawsuits
- Junk Science & Expert Witness Reforms
- Prejudgment Interest Reforms (Shall not begin to accrue until 24 months after commencement of suit) and a reduction in the rate calculation
- Joint & Several Liability (While retaining the current language stating that such liability only applies if the tortfeasor is more than 50% at fault, the reform language will remove the exception for instances where the plaintiff is not contributory at fault.)
- Asbestos/Silicosis Reforms
- Cap on Non-Economic Damages
- Pleading/award level (More closely tied to Federal level)
- Peer Review Confidentiality
- Certificate of Merit for Professional Negligence
- Products Liability
- Forum non conveniens
- Initial Disclosure of Witness Exhibits
- Gun Manufacturers Liability Protection
- Common Sense Consumption Act (“Cheeseburger Act”)
- Volunteer Liability
- Emergency Volunteer Immunity
- School Protection Act
- Admissibility of non-wearing of Seat Belts (for children under 16)
- Agri-Tourism Liability Reform

Wisconsin

Recognizing that their proposals would not withstand public scrutiny, the trial bar buried deep in Gov. Doyle's budget proposal a provision that would gut previously enacted joint and several liability reforms. AJP and the Wisconsin Manufacturers & Commerce (WMC) exposed the hidden proposal and educated the public and lawmakers on the harsh impact increased liabilities would have on Wisconsin's already crippled economy. AJP provided a grant and communications experts who worked with WMC on media outreach, message development and advertising.

Our efforts succeeded in removing the liability expanding provision from the state budget. However, a new law did pass that allows convicted felons, among others, to file lawsuits to win workplace punitive damage awards up to $300,000 on top of actual damage awards. WMC urged Doyle to veto the legislation and then what happened?

Texas

AJP's investment of money and professional communications resources in Texas paid large dividends. Reformers stymied every major personal injury trial lawyer-backed initiative. Lawmakers agreed with our partner, the Texas Civil Justice League (TCJL) that economic recovery and job creation depend upon a legal and regulatory environment that encourages business expansion and investment.

By working with lawmakers on developing public policy, TCJL has earned a reputation as an "honest broker" which was an important calling card at a time when misinformation clouded the debate on many issues. Legal reformers succeeded in several pitched battles, including evidence standards in asbestos-related mesothelioma cases, paying "phantom" healthcare damages in personal injury lawsuits, wide-ranging qui tam proposals, and unprecedented expansion of property owners' liability. One 11th hour bill that would expand liability for physicians who practice in rural hospitals and undermine Texas' medical malpractice caps passed but was vetoed by Governor Rick Perry. AJP and TCJL will closely monitor a short July special session that should be limited to the review of agencies under sunset review and transportation bonding authority.

Michigan

Lobbying and education efforts have led to the postponement of the consideration of three hostile Michigan bills until October. HB 4316 eliminates the language barring Michigan citizens from suing drug companies over any drug with FDA approval; HB 4317 would give people whose drug product liability claims were barred by the current law a 3 year window to commence a claim; and HB 4318 would expand the Consumer Protection Act to make it an unfair trade practice in the event of inaccurate representations concerning risks of certain drugs, medications, and supplements. In the recent US Supreme Court decision (Wyeth v Levine), the court left states the authority to determine which lawsuits challenging FDA decisions should be allowed. This fall, the AJP will be supporting the FDA Defense bill and working to defeat any legislation that expands liability. A slim pro-reform majority in the Michigan Senate that has protected liability reforms will be tested in a special election in the 19th district this fall. The race promises to be an expensive contest with major implications for the 2010 campaigns.

South Carolina

AJP is currently engaged with the South Carolina Civil Justice Coalition as they implement a two-year strategy to bring liability reform to the Palmetto State. The first quarter of 2009 saw trial lawyer-legislators use the furlough issue and budget shortfalls to stall legal reform initiatives. The Coalition and AJP are shining a bright light on the delaying tactics of these trial lawyer-legislators.

AJP funded communications efforts in 35 targeted legislative districts have helped achieve a commitment for interim hearings this fall and made liability reform a top House leadership priority in 2010. Given the uncertainty of Governor Mark Sanford's political future it is important to note that Lt. Governor Andre Bauer campaigned as a tort reformer this past election cycle. Speaker of the House, Bobby Harrell, is also a committed champion of reform and is driving this legislative effort.

Louisiana

AJP's partnership with the Coalition for Common Sense during the spring session achieved significant success in the Louisiana House that was ultimately stymied by the trial bar in the Senate. Three bills passed the House that will streamline and expedite the litigation process for latent disease: a) a bankruptcy transparency bill that would require plaintiffs to disclose if they have already filed against the Trust; b) a bill that would require the plaintiff to file the lawsuit in the Parish of exposure; and c) a bill that would require the plaintiff to substantiate their claims by providing basic employment information and location of their exposure.

The retirement of 4th District Supreme Court Justice Chet Traylor necessitates a special election on October 17. A preliminary analysis of the two likeliest candidates' records shows few philosophical differences but state partner, the Louisiana Association of Business and Industry (LABI), will be interviewing the candidates this summer. We will pursue further due diligence and continue our dialogue with LABI before deciding whether or not to defer participation.

Tipping the scales for legal reform.

Mission

The American Justice Partnership (AJP) works to improve the fairness and predictability of the legal environment at the state level.

- AJP creates an environment in which legal reform champions can be elected to high offices like governor, legislature, attorney general and supreme court.
- AJP enacts and protects state legislation that increases fairness and predictability often resulting in more favorable litigation costs and awards and an improved jobs environment by limiting the abusive lawsuits brought by the trial bar.
- AJP fights lawsuit abuse and jackpot justice by opposing bad laws, bad judges and bad lawyers.

Who We Are

The American Justice Partnership is dedicated to winning legal reform in the states. AJP is run by campaign professionals who achieve results in battles that can deliver a meaningful return on investment. AJP typically deploys programs in partnership with a network of over sixty state and national partners.

What We Do

AJP designs, funds and implements high-impact campaigns to legal reform at the state level. AJP deploys dynamic political campaign programs at critical junctures in support of legislative objectives and legal reform advocates seeking offices like state legislature, Attorney General and Supreme Court.

Why We're Better

AJP avoids the mistakes that typify some out-of-state efforts. We collaborate with any number of over sixty state or national partners on each project. We leverage the best of local knowledge and national expertise into one-of-a-kind campaigns that deliver impact and strengthen local partners.

How We Win

AJP has nearly a decade of experience in going toe-to-toe with the trial bar on major issues. We've learned that they engage every fight, big or small, with a take-no-prisoners approach that many companies and organizations cannot match without risking damage to their brands. We provide anonymity to funders who need to protect their legitimate business interests but can't afford to risk their brand reputation.

The programs we design, fund and implement typically feature the type of hardball tactics that are necessary to prevail against a highly-motivated opponent. Our efforts are focused:

- Where our help can tip the balance.
- In states where major legal reform legislation is at stake.
- Where the trial bar, unions and other liberal opponents of legal reform engage in elections for the state legislature, attorney general and supreme court.
- Where we have credible local organizations with which to partner.

It is the combination of experience, approach and targeting that allows AJP to succeed in achieving legal reform at the state level.

3. Please submit a copy of the agreement between your organization and Foley & Lardner LLP. Also send a copy of the agreement between your organization and the Pero Consulting, Inc.

With respect to the requested copy of the agreement between the Organization and Foley & Lardner LLP, the requested agreement is the engagement letter between the Organization and its law firm, Foley & Lardner LLP, which was entered into between the parties on April 13, 2005. The engagement letter is protected by the attorney client privilege as it is a confidential document between the law firm and its client, the Organization. For this reason, a copy of the confidential engagement letter between Foley & Lardner LLP and its client, the Organization, has not been provided.

With respect to the requested copy of the agreement between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc., the requested agreement is the Consulting Services Agreement dated as of March 1, 2005 between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc. A copy of this requested agreement is enclosed.

To determine whether the transaction is truly arm's length, please respond to the following:

4. Was the transaction between related parties?

The IRS instructions for Schedule R to Form 990 provide that an organization is a related organization to the tax-filing organization if it has one of the following relationships to the tax-filing organization: (i) parent, (ii) subsidiary, (iii) nonprofit organization controlled by the same person that controls the tax-filing organization or (iv) supporting organization. The tax-filing organization in this case is the Organization.

With respect to the engagement letter between the Organization and its law firm Foley & Lardner LLP, the transaction was not between related parties according the requirements to disclose related party transactions on Schedule R to Form 990. The law firm is not a parent, subsidiary or supporting organization of the Organization. Moreover, the law firm is not a nonprofit organization and is not controlled by the same person that controls the Organization, namely the Organization's Board of Directors.

With respect to the agreement between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc., the transaction was not between related parties according the requirements to disclose related party transactions on Schedule R to Form 990. For the following reasons, Pero Consulting, Inc. does not constitute a related party with respect to the Organization. First, Pero Consulting, Inc. is not a parent of the Organization because it does not own any equity interests in or have any control over the affairs of the Organization (which are vested in the Board of Directors of the Organization). Second, Pero Consulting, Inc. is not a subsidiary of the Organization because the Organization does not own any equity interests in or have any control over the affairs of Pero Consulting, Inc. Third, Pero Consulting, Inc. is not a nonprofit entity and is not controlled by the same person that controls the Organization, namely the Organization's Board of Directors. Fourth, Pero Consulting, Inc. is not a supporting organization of the Organization. Therefore, under the IRS regulations pertaining to the disclosure of related party transactions on Schedule R to Form 990, the agreement between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc. is not a related party transaction.

5. Who signed the agreement?

With respect to the engagement letter between the Organization and its law firm Foley & Lardner LLP, the letter was executed on behalf of the Organization by Mr. Dan Pero, President of the Organization, and on behalf of Foley & Lardner LLP by Cleta Mitchell, legal counsel to the Organization.

With respect to the agreement between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc., the agreement was executed on behalf of the Organization by Mr. John Engler, the Chairman of the Organization, and on behalf of Pero Consulting, Inc. by Mr. Dan Pero, President of Pero Consulting, Inc.

6. Who was involved in the decision-making process – interested parties or independent parties?

With respect to the engagement letter between the Organization and its law firm Foley & Lardner LLP, the decision-making process with respect to retaining Cleta Mitchell as legal counsel to the Organization was entirely independent and involved no related parties.

With respect to the agreement between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc., the decision-making process with respect to entering into the agreement with Pero Consulting, Inc. was founded upon the following facts. In 2004, a group of individuals decided to work on a national effort to bring tort reform to the states, using the model that had been established in Michigan in the late 1990s and early part of the 2000s. Dan Pero, President of Pero Consulting, Inc., had previously served as the Chief of Staff to then-governor of Michigan Mr. John Engler and had been a chief architect of the successful effort to enact tort reform legislation in Michigan. Based on Mr. Pero's former relationship with Mr. Engler as his previous Chief of Staff and campaign manager, Mr. Pero was then recruited by former Governor Engler and others involved in forming the Organization. Mr. Pero agreed to become the President of the Organization and to help build a national effort similar to what he had helped to achieve in Michigan during his service in the governor's office.

FOLEY & LARDNER LLP

Ms. Gerry McLaughlin

7. Who set the terms of the agreement, and how?

With respect to the engagement letter between the Organization and its law firm Foley & Lardner LLP, the terms of the agreement were set by the normal and customary manner in which law firms are engaged, based on hourly rates for attorneys with specific experience and skills.

With respect to the agreement between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc., the terms of the agreement were determined through negotiations between the members of the Board of Directors of the Organization and Mr. Pero to secure Mr. Pero's involvement with the Organization, a start-up organization. Although Mr. Pero is the current President of the Organization, he receives no compensation from the Organization for his services as President.

Pero Consulting, Inc. does receive payments from the Organization for any services that Mr. Pero actually performs in his capacity as a consultant for the Organization at a rate of $25,000 per month which was based on Mr. Pero's then-current consulting fee of $250 per hour and based upon the then-market rate for salaries of Executive Vice Presidents performing similar consulting services. This rate was increased pursuant to a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Organization in 2007 to $27,916 per month, which increase reflects Mr. Pero's increased workload and job performance. In turn, Mr. Pero is paid a salary by Pero Consulting, Inc. for his services. Mr. Pero works 8-10 hours per day in his role as President of Pero Consulting, Inc. and performs all of the work himself without the assistance of any support or clerical staff. The expenditures of the Organization with respect to its agreement with Pero Consulting, Inc. have been duly reported on the Organization's IRS Form 990 each year since 2005, the relevant pages of each Form 990 showing such expenditures are enclosed.

8. What was the basis of the decision?

With respect to the engagement letter between the Organization and its law firm Foley & Lardner LLP, the basis of the decision was a review of the needs of the Organization after it had been operating for a sufficient period of time, such that the prior attorneys that had represented the Organization were not deemed to be of sufficient skill to properly represent the Organization and meets the needs of the Organization. The Organization then searched for new counsel and retained Cleta Mitchell, a partner in the Washington, D.C. office of Foley & Lardner LLP, based on her reputation as a nationally renowned attorney representing organizations involved in the policy, legislative and political law realm. Ms. Mitchell agreed in 2009 to serve as the corporate secretary of the Organization in order to maintain and keep current the corporate records and filings of the Organization.

FOLEY & LARDNER LLP

Ms. Gerry McLaughlin

With respect to the agreement between the Organization and Pero Consulting, Inc., the basis of the decision was that Mr. Pero would be responsible for building the Organization, raising money, overseeing and implementing the programs approved by the Board of Directors of the Organization, and many other duties requiring specialized skills, knowledge and expertise, not to mention the subject matter expertise and experience in the realm of civil justice, tort reform, and lawsuit abuse. }

Consultant will have access to and supervisory responsibility over appropriate clerical support to be provided and paid for by AJP.

5. Compensation. As sole compensation on for the Services to be provided by Consultant to AJP, AJP shall pay Consultant a contract payment of $300,000 for the 12 months of this agreement, payable in monthly installments of $25,000 paid on the first day of each month. 6. Expenses. Upon receipt of itemized vouchers and receipts submitted to AJP, in accordance with NAM's procedures then in effect, as adopted by AJP, AJP shall reimburse Consultant for all reasonable and necessary business expenses incurred by Consultant in connection with the performance of the Services.

7. Termination of Agreement.

7.1 AJP may terminate this Agreement, in its sole discretion and with or without cause, on thirty (30) calendar day's prior written notice to Consultant.

7.2 Either party may immediately terminate this Agreement upon written notice to the other party in the event either party is in default of any term of this Agreement and fails to cure such default within twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of written notice of such default.

7.3 In the event of such termination as set forth in this Section 7, Consultant shall not be entitled to any compensation other than the undisputed amounts owed under this Agreement before such termination, and in no event shall AJP be liable to Consultant for any direct, indirect, special or consequential damages, lost profits, or costs arising out of such termination.

7.4 The parties' obligations under this Agreement as set forth in Sections 7 through 14 shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement.

8. Covenant Not to Solicit, Confidentiality and Trade Secrets.

8.1 Covenant Not to Solicit. Consultant shall not, during the Term of this Agreement and for a period of one (1) year immediately following the termination of this Agreement, or any extension thereof, for any reason, either directly or indirectly solicit or take away or attempt to solicit or take away any of AJP or NAM's employees or contractors either for Consultant or for any other person or entity.

8.2 Confidentiality. Consultant acknowledges and agrees that before and during the Term of this Agreement, Consultant has and will become privy to important proprietary, confidential business information and trade secrets that are the exclusive property of NAM working in conjunction with the AJP. This information includes, without limitation, business plans and strategies, marketing concepts, designs, proposals, financial information, costs, pricing information, client lists and contact information, and key relationships and business partners, including their business plans and strategies and financial information (the "Confidential Information"). This Confidential Information derives independent economic value, both actual and potential, from not being generally known to the public or to other persons who can obtain economic or other value from its disclosure and use. As NAM has always held the Confidential Information as proprietary, confidential trade secret information and has taken steps to insure that the Confidential Information is not disclosed outside of NAM, the Confidential Information constitutes "trade secrets" under the Uniform Trade Secrets Act. In light of the foregoing, Consultant therefore agrees that: (1) Consultant will not at any time, now or in the future, share, disseminate, disclose, discuss or use the Confidential Information in any way; and (2) upon termination of this Agreement, Consultant will return to NAM or AJP all property, writings and/or documents in his possession or custody belonging to or relating to the affairs of NAM or AJP any of its agents or business partners, or comprising or relating to the Confidential Information.

The restrictions of this Section 8.2 shall not apply to any information of the Consultant that (i) is or becomes (through no improper action or inaction by the Consultant) generally available to the public; (ii) was in his possession or known by him without restriction, prior to receipt from AJP or NAM; (iii) was rightfully disclosed to Consultant by a third party without obligation of confidentiality; (iv) is independently developed by Consultant without reference to the Confidential Information of AJP or NAM; or (v) is subject to disclosure pursuant to a subpoena, judicial or governmental requirement, or order, provided the Consultant has given NAM sufficient prior notice of such subpoena, requirement or order, to permit AJP and NAM a reasonable opportunity to object to the subpoena, requirement or order and allow AJP and NAM the opportunity to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy.

9. Ownership of Intellectual Property.

9.1 Consultant agrees that all writings, business plans, strategies and all other information and items made exclusively by Consultant (i) during the course of this Agreement, (ii) before the Term of this Agreement but made in connection with the Services, or (iii) otherwise arising from the Services (hereinafter referred to, collectively, as the "Work Product") shall be and are hereby assigned to AJP as its sole and exclusive property. Upon AJP's request Consultant agrees to assist AJP, at AJP's expense, to obtain copyrights for such Work Product, including the disclosure of all pertinent information and data with respect thereto, the execution of all applications, specifications, oaths, and assignments, and all other instruments and papers which NAM shall deem necessary to apply for and to assign or convey to AJP, its successors and assigns or nominees, the sole and exclusive right, title and interest in such Work Product.

9.2 Consultant hereby acknowledges and agrees any and all copyrightable works created by Consultant in connection with the performance of the Services, alone or with others, during the Term of this Agreement, or before the Term of this Agreement but was made in connection with the Services, shall be deemed to have been specially ordered or commissioned and, as such, shall be deemed to be "works for hire" under the United States copyright laws from the inception or creation of such works. In the event that any such works shall be deemed by a court of competent jurisdiction not to be a "work made for hire," this Agreement shall operate as an irrevocable assignment by Consultant to AJP of all right, title and interest in and to such works, including without limitation, all worldwide copyright interests therein, in perpetuity. The fact that such copyrightable works are created by Consultant outside of AJP's facilities or other than during Consultant's working hours with AJP, shall not diminish AJP's rights with respect to such works which otherwise fall within this subsection. Consultant agrees to execute and deliver to AJP any such further instruments or documents as may be requested by AJP in order to effectuate the purposes of this subsection.

9.3 Consultant represents and warrants that all work to be delivered by Consultant under this Agreement will not violate or in any way infringe any copyright or misappropriate any trade secret of any third party. Consultant shall indemnify and hold harmless (including payment of reasonable attorneys' fees) AJP and its directors, officers, employees and agents (each of the foregoing being referred to individually as an "Indemnified Party") for any claim, loss or liability to third parties (other than such claim, loss or liability solely the fault of the Indemnified Party) arising from or in connection with the Consultant's breach of this Section 9.3 of this Agreement.

10. Indemnification of Consultant. AJP shall indemnify and hold harmless (including payment of reasonable attorneys' fees) Consultant and his agents (each of the foregoing being referred to individually as an "Indemnified Party") for any claim, loss or liability to third parties (other than such claim, loss or liability solely the fault of the Indemnified Party) arising from or in connection with the Services Consultant provides to AJP during the Term of this Agreement.

11. Relationship of the Parties.

11.1 Consultant enters into this Agreement as, and shall continue to be, an independent contractor. The parties agree that no employment relationship, partnership, joint venture or other association shall be deemed created by this Agreement. Under no circumstances shall Consultant look to AJP an employer, or as a partner, agent, or principal. The manner and means of handling the projects undertaken by Consultant shall be under the sole control of Consultant.

11.2 Consultant shall have the entire responsibility to discharge any and all obligations under federal, state or local laws, regulations or orders now or hereafter in effect, relating to taxes, unemployment compensation or insurance, social security, workers' compensation, disability pensions and tax withholdings (the "Tax Obligations"). Consultant hereby agrees to indemnify and hold AJP and the NAM as the provider of all financial and accounting services to AJP, harmless for any and all claims, losses, costs, fees, liabilities, damages or injuries suffered by AJP or NAM arising out of Consultant's failure to properly discharge the Tax Obligations.

12. Severability and Governing Law.

12.1 Should any of the provisions in this Agreement be declared or be determined to be illegal or invalid, all remaining parts, terms or provisions shall be valid, and the illegal or invalid part, term or provision shall be deemed not to be a part of this Agreement.

12.2 This Agreement is made and entered into in the District of Columbia and shall in all respects be interpreted, enforced and governed under the laws of the District of Columbia without regard to its conflict of law provisions.

13. Entire Agreement. This Agreement is the entire agreement between Consultant and AJP and fully supersedes any and all prior agreements or understandings between the parties pertaining to its subject matter.

14. Legal Costs and Expenses. If any action or proceeding is brought to enforce any of the terms of this Agreement, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover all of its reasonable costs and expenses incurred in such proceeding, including but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees.

15. Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications called for or contemplated under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given when personally delivered, on the date of transmission if sent by facsimile, on the third day after mailing if mailed to the party to whom notice is to be given, by first class mail, postage prepaid, and properly addressed as followed:

Re: American Justice Partnership
Employer Identification Number: 20-2222409

Dear Ms. McLaughlin:

This letter responds to your request for additional information regarding American Justice Partnership (the "Organization"). For your convenience, each of your questions is set forth below, followed by the organization's response.

1. Please have an officer that is listed on page 2 of your application sign and date the enclosed statement.

Mr. Dan Pero, President of the Organization, has signed and dated the enclosed statement, attached as Enclosure #1. In addition, the Organization also attaches the original letter from your office to the Organization as Enclosure #2.

2. Please note that we are not asking you questions regarding the Schedule R to Form 990. We are asking you questions regarding your contracts and agreements between your organization and officers or your organization as part of your application Form 1024 submission.

Did you consider any other consulting firms? If so, please explain.

When the American Justice Partnership was originally envisioned in 2005 by former Michigan Governor John Engler, his idea was to build a national grassroots effort to encourage, train and support business leaders and business organizations in the states to develop both long-range and targeted programs to enact changes in the tort laws of the states, following the pattern and example that had been so successful in Michigan during his tenure as Michigan governor.

In other words, the goal was to follow Michigan's example, recognizing that tort reform is a key to every state's economy and fighting the trial lawyers' vested interests requires a multi-pronged effort.

First, business leaders must be educated as to the costs to business of frivolous lawsuits.

Next, business leaders must be trained as to how best to communicate the costs of excessive litigation to their businesses and industries, and, in turn, the need for their involvement in the legislative process, helping political and policy leaders to understand those costs.

Then, legislation and policy changes must be developed, communicated, introduced into legislatures and grassroots support must be mobilized for the support of passage of tort reform laws.

Even after laws are changed, the efforts cannot stop. The trial lawyers have been active in every state that has enacted tort reform laws to challenge those laws in the courts and, with many judges selected by the trial bar, business leaders and legislators have watched in dismay as the judiciary time and again has overturned the duly-enacted laws of the states.

Thus, a major effort to educate citizens about the need for citizen participation in judicial selection and elections has been identified as an important step in the process. Supporting pro-reform legislators and attorneys general is also of importance to keep the law changes enacted by one legislature from being wiped off the statute books by a successor legislature.

This template was developed by then-Gov. John Engler in Michigan in the late 1990's and successfully created a growing economy in Michigan. When Governor Engler left office, he and some of his closest advisors felt it was important to teach other states' business and policy leaders how to accomplish and maintain tort reform laws.

American Justice Partnership was created for that purpose in 2005. Gov. Engler and other leaders from Michigan envisioned AJP and specifically recruited Dan Pero to take the responsibility of taking Gov. Engler's idea and turning it into a reality by serving as its President. Dan Pero served as Gov. Engler's Chief of Staff and had been the architect of Michigan's tort reform efforts and initiatives.

Your question, "were any other consulting firms considered?" disregards the fact that there have been several national tort reform organizations but none were based in the states and none had the leadership of individuals who understood and had been successful in enacting state-level tort reform and keeping those gains as law within the state.

Dan Pero was recruited to serve as the President of AJP. In turn, the decision was made that AJP would operate as a very lean, low overhead organization, with no employees and no 'bricks and mortar'. Dan Pero's responsibilities include three major functions:

1. Identify state level 'partners' in every state in America. This requires constant travel by Dan Pero to meet with state business leaders and state business organizations, assessing their capabilities to achieve tort reform and to identify needs at the state level that AJP can help fill. These needs include such things as funding for legislative initiatives, public education, grassroots mobilization and networking among various business groups. AJP is not interested in having its name in the news: the goal is to help bolster the capabilities and effectiveness of the state organizations and AJP's job as 'national partner' is to work behind the scenes with the state leaders to encourage and support their efforts.
2. Raise money for grants to states in support of their tort reform efforts. Dan Pero travels and meets with donors, prospective donors and supporters to describe the key targets for tort reform opportunities in the states to assure that the state partners have sufficient resources for whatever battles they face during a particular calendar year.
3. Develop research and information that can be used in state tort reform efforts. Dan Pero has identified and retained skilled consultants in targeted fields to assist with specific research and communications on the impact of litigation on America's economy. Visit the American Justice Partnership website for information as to how AJP is making its voice heard in creative ways on these issues.

Dan Pero was tapped for this position because of his knowledge, skill, background and expertise in the field of tort reform. A biographical sketch is attached to this letter.

In short, there really isn't anyone else with Dan Pero's capabilities and dedication to this issue who would have better served the organization and the cause of legal reform these past several years.

Did you consider any other legal firms? If so, please explain.

Yes. I am the fourth attorney retained by AJP. The first attorney was a volunteer and, frankly, while the price was right, the reason this Form 1024 was never filed was because she didn't know to prepare and file it. And the Board of Directors didn't realize it hadn't been done until I figured it out last year. The second attorney retained by the organization also didn't file the Form 1024 and was not responsive to the AJP's needs. The organization then retained yet another attorney who didn't return phone calls to the organization. In 2006, the organization hired me but only for its compliance responsibilities related to lobbying and state level activities. In late 2008, the organization asked me to take over and review all the corporate compliance issues and it was in early 2009 that I received all the corporate records from the previous custodian and at that time realized that the organization had never applied for or received its tax-exempt status.

So, yes, I'm the fourth attorney hired by AJP and it is now my job to sort out the failings of the first three who preceded me.

3. Please send copies of any meeting minutes that will show the discussions and decisions to retain the Foley & Lardner LLP and Pero Consulting, Inc.

As I indicated, prior to my being retained by AJP, the organization did meet its basic obligations in terms of its incorporation, bylaws, annual meetings and minutes, but the minutes are very basic and do not reflect "discussions" regarding the decision to retain Pero Consulting, Inc. or Foley & Lardner LLP. The signed contract with Pero Consulting was previously provided – and the description above regarding the creation of the organization and the decision by its founders to recruit and retain Dan Pero to run the organization is the best we can do to explain why and how Dan Pero came to be the President and the lead consultant to AJP. The minutes do not contain a discussion of that decision-making process.

The history of the organization and its successes in numerous states are a matter of public record on the AJP website.

4. Based on the activities description on your Form 1024 application your activities appear primarily political. Under Statement of Program Service Accomplishments on your Form 990 you stated "Each activity that we support must meet one of the three goals of AJP. Our support of legislative initiatives in several states helped lead to varying degrees of reform. Our support of partner efforts to advocate for pro-reform candidates for public officers was successful in the support by the public of many pro-reform candidates committed to legal reform agendas."

Please submit a breakdown of your activities. Explain how each activity furthers your exempt purpose. Explain how each activity is conducted in a non-political or political manner. At the end of each activity calculate the percentage of time and revenue that will be dedicated to the activity. When the activities are all listed the percentages should total 100%.

This is NOT a correct assessment of AJP's activities. AJP has as one of its activities to support pro-legal reform candidates for state office. However, that is far from its principal or primary purpose. AJP's primary purpose is to assist state business leaders and organizations in developing and achieving legislative victories in the field of tort reform, and to communicate to the public and legislators the importance of tort reform to a growing economy in the states. Support of pro-legal reform candidates is only a minor part of AJP's activities.

A breakdown of AJP's activities during an average calendar year would consist of the following:

Public Education and Communication Regarding Economic Costs Of Litigation:	40 %
State Partner Development and Support:	40%
Fundraising:	10%
Grants to 527 Organizations for Political Expenditures:	10%
	100%

The best description of how AJP conducts each of these objectives can be seen from the attached excerpts from the AJP website. It should be noted that AJP works behind the scenes with many state organization partners and provides technical support and information on an ongoing basis which, in turn, allows the state organizations to achieve legislative, policy and political support. However, there has never been a year in which AJP's program expenditures were for political purposes. The mission of AJP is to provide a policy environment where pro-legal reform elected officials can achieve lasting changes to the law.

NOTE: AJP has filed an 1120-POL and paid the political expenditure tax on all grants or contributions to 527 organizations for political purposes. AJP does not make direct political expenditures or contributions to candidates.

If you have any additional questions regarding the Organization or its operations, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

AJP Leadership

Recognizing the glaring need for an organized effort to support legal reform efforts at the state level, Home Depot co-founder Bernie Marcus, former Governor John Engler and nationally recognized legal reform leader Steve Hantler founded AJP. Each brought a unique perspective to AJP allowing them to see the flaws of the legal system and where it needed to be corrected.

Current AJP President Dan Pero brings over 30 years of political and policy experience to the cause. His team of battle tested communication and campaign experts has a proven record of success in going toe-to-toe with the trial bar.

Dan Pero

President, American Justice Partnership

Dan Pero is President of the American Justice Partnership, a nationwide coalition to advocate for legal reform at the state level. Mr. Pero is a leading expert in political campaigns and issues management with more than 30 years experience in state government, grassroots organizing, communications and public affairs and was named Michigan's best Republican political consultant of the past 50 years by the Michigan Political History Society.

In 2004, he was executive director of the highly successful state legal reform effort that has since become the American Justice Partnership, an affiliate of the National Manufacturers Association.

Mr. Pero served as Chief of Staff and Campaign Manager for former three-term Michigan Governor John Engler. The legal reform successes achieved in Michigan are widely viewed as the definitive model for legal reform at the state level.

Mr. Pero managed the 1996 presidential campaign for former Tennessee Governor Lamar Alexander and served as a strategist, media producer and consultant to candidates for President of the United States, U.S. Senate and House of Representatives and for successful ballot initiatives in Texas and Michigan.

He was a founding partner of Sterling Corporation, a public affairs, issues management and political consulting firm based in Lansing, MI. Prior to Sterling, Mr. Pero was Managing Director of the Michigan office of Weber-Shandwick Worldwide, then the largest public relations company in the world, where he provided clients with message development, branding, marketing, communications and strategic counsel.

Setting A Standard

Free enterprise is facing unprecedented challenges while at the same time America's legal system is a maze of contradictory rules that differ in nearly every state. Businesses may face a predictable and reasonable system in one state but unfairness and uncertainty in another.

These threats and uncertainties hinder job creation, increase costs for consumers and make it harder to earn a fair profit. The current system hurts workers, employers, consumers and even legitimate victims. The only winners are predatory trial lawyers who manipulate the system to their own personal ends. AJP is fighting that.

Mission

The American Justice Partnership works to promote free enterprise and improve the fairness and predictability of the legal environment at the state level.

Achieving our goals

- AJP creates an environment in which entrepreneurs can thrive and legal reform champions can be elected to high offices like governor, legislature, attorney general and state supreme court.
- AJP enacts and protects state legislation that encourages free enterprise and increases fairness and predictability often resulting in more reasonable litigation costs and awards and an improved jobs environment by limiting the abusive lawsuits brought by the trial bar.
- AJP fights lawsuit abuse and jackpot justice by opposing bad laws, bad judges and bad lawyers.

About

ABOUT MISSION SUCCESSES THE AJP DIFFERENCE LEADERSHIP CEO ALARM

Who We Are

The American Justice Partnership is a national organization dedicated to promoting free enterprise and winning legal reform in the states. AJP is run by campaign professionals who achieve results in battles that can deliver a meaningful return on investment. AJP typically enacts programs in partnership with a network of over 60 state and national partners.

What We Do

AJP designs, funds and implements high-impact campaigns to promote free markets and achieve legal reform at the state level. AJP deploys dynamic political programs at critical junctures in support of legislative objectives and free enterprise and legal reform advocates seeking offices like state legislature, attorney general and supreme court.

Why We Partner

We collaborate with any number of over 60 state or national partners on each project. AJP partnerships leverage the best of local knowledge and national expertise into one-of-a-kind campaigns that deliver impact and strengthen local partners while avoiding the mistakes that typify some out-of-state efforts.

How We Win

AJP has nearly a decade of experience in beating the trial bar on major issues. They engage every fight, big or small, with a take-no-prisoners approach. We know their methods and how to fight back. We play to win.

In A Nutshell, We Play Hardball:

- When our help can tip the balance.
- On issues where free markets are threatened and in states where major legal reform legislation is at stake.
- Where the trial bar, unions and other liberal opponents of free enterprise and legal reform engage in elections for the state legislature, attorney general and supreme court.
- Where we have credible local organizations as our partners.

It is this combination of experience, approach and targeting that allows AJP to succeed.

Have Coat, Will Travel — Lose Suit, Will Sue

March 11, 2010

What do you do if you're a Texas personal injury lawyer who forgets his $800 leather jacket at an airport when boarding a flight?

Well, since you're a personal injury lawyer and owned an $800 coat, you could probably afford to buy a new one.

Or since you make your living bringing personal injury lawsuits you could...

1. Threaten to sue the city where the airport is located;
2. Threaten to sue the the concession where you think you left your jacket;
3. And threaten to sue the airline!

That's what William Ogletree, a Houston trial lawyer chose. The Ogletree case is just one more example of lack of personal responsibility that runs rampant these days. For more of the gory details read this article from the Southeast Texas Record.

More on the "Perception" Problem

March 9, 2010

Yesterday I responded to an item by the folks over at JudgesOnMerit ("Why Perception Matters"). A closer reading turns up a number of other claims in the post that are false or misleading. Here's a quick debunking:

First, JudgesonMerit claims that under the plan the group supports, judges would be screened "by a non-partisan citizen panel representing the diverse spectrum of interests in the community." Actually, under the plan the group supports, at least half of the panel members must be lawyers. So much for representing "the diverse spectrum of interests."

Second, the group claims "the public ... will have the ultimate say in retention elections." Actually, retention elections do nothing to ensure public accountability, but only assure a lifetime appointment to the bench. Of the 6,309 judges who ran in retention elections between 1964 and 2006, more than 99% were re-elected. Since "merit" selection was adopted in Tennessee, only one judge has ever lost a retention election.

Third, JudgesonMerit attempts to invoke the Founders, as if they would support "merit" selection. Actually, in Federalist 39, James Madison wrote that it is "essential" that a democratic government "be derived from the great body of society, not from an inconsiderable proportion or favored class of it." It seems pretty obvious that "merit" selection – where judges are chosen not by the great body of society (the people) but by an inconsiderable proportion of it (a small panel dominated by lawyers accountable to no one) is exactly the type of system the Founders wanted to avoid.

Another Admission: "Merit" Selection Campaign is About Perception, Not Reality

March 8, 2010

Last week I did a little post on the ABA's striking admission that the whole "merit" selection campaign is based purely on "perception" – not any real evidence that elected judges are "for sale" as most "merit" selection proponents claim. Well, it seems to have struck a nerve!

Our friends over at JudgesOnMerit – the group trying to end democratic judicial elections in Pennsylvania – were out this morning with an item entitled, “Why Perception Matters.” After admitting that elected judges are “certainly not” corrupt and are “by and large fully qualified to serve,” the blogger makes a run at defining the “perception” problem. There’s a lot of throat-clearing, but the main point seems to be this:

“The greatest problem, however, has to do not with the outcomes in specific cases, but with the effect judicial campaigning and fundraising have on the public’s perception of justice. We pay respect and honor to judges when we address them; we clothe them in grave black robes; and we have them sit elevated from the rest of us, looking down in judgment. A simple traffic court judge is addressed as ‘Your Honor,’ while even the office of the President of the United States commands no such title. All of this, so that decisions handed down by the courts are respected – and that respect is so critical because the judiciary as an institution has no means to enforce its edicts. Indeed, for a court to have any power at all, the public must believe that justice, and not some perversion of it, is being meted out in its marble hallways, and that judges are impartial arbiters of disputes and interpreters of law rather than mere political actors.”

The implication here is that the “perception” – which the blogger admits is false – justifies doing away with a right as fundamental as voting. But if “perception” alone disqualifies a judicial selection system, what about the “perception” associated with “merit” selection?

Under “merit” selection, judges are chosen not in open, transparent elections involving all the people, but by a tiny handful of elites (mostly lawyers) who deliberate behind closed doors. Isn’t there a “perception” that this turns the courts into closed, lawyers-only clubs?

And what about public accountability? In contested democratic elections, the people can decide if a judge is too beholden to this or that group and dismiss that judge from public service. Under the retention elections “merit” selection supporters promote, more than 99% of judges are re-elected. Doesn’t that create the “perception” that retention elections are just a fig leaf designed to insulate judges from the people they serve?

If all these groups – the ABA, JudgesOnMerit, Justice at Stake – believe the only problem with judicial elections is a false public perception, then why are they spending so much money to inflame this perception rather than debunking it?

Soros Targeting the Euro?

March 8, 2010

As readers of AmericanCourthouse know, George Soros has helped to bankroll Justice at Stake, the group dedicated to replacing judicial elections with so-called “merit” selection. Well, you might think that attempting to eliminate the democratic election of hundreds of judges in dozens of states would be enough to keep bazillionaire Soros busy. Well, what ordinary humans might call a full plate, Mr. Soros apparently considers to be an appetizer. Not satisfied with destroying democratic judicial elections, Soros is reportedly attempting to destroy major world currencies.

Rolling the “Merit” Selection Rock up the Hill in Maryland

March 5, 2010

Voters in Maryland have twice blocked attempts to disenfranchise themselves when it comes to selecting judges. They have twice voted down proposals to end democratic judicial elections and adopt a “merit” selection system. But the “merit” selection crowd is pushing the rock up the hill once again – this time with the help of Attorney General (and future, would-be governor) Doug Gansler and former U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O’Connor. (The Baltimore Sun has an excellent write up here and you can also read an op-ed of mine the Sun was kind enough to print here.)

“The independence of the judiciary is something we all ought to care about,” Justice O’Connor told a legislative panel in Annapolis, MD. It’s tempting to pass by this bromide with a thoughtful nod of the head, but there’s actually an interesting point here.

Everyone says they want judges to be “independent” – but independent from what? In my view, voters want judges who are independent from the influences of special interests – they want judges who will reach fair and impartial decisions. It’s up to voters in democratic elections to evaluate whether a judge has met this standard. “Merit” selection, however, delivers an entirely different kind of independence – namely judges who are “independent” from (and totally unaccountable to) the people they serve.

Baltimore attorney William H. “Billy” Murphy nailed this point, telling the Sun reporter that under “merit” selection voters...

“...have no idea what is going on behind closed doors. With the electoral system, you will know. If you don’t like it, and it stinks, you can do something.”

When America’s Founders wrote our Constitution, one of the primary goals was to protect the people from the government. “Merit” selection proponents want to turn that principle on its head by protecting the government (our public servants on the bench) from the people.

Another AHA! Moment

March 4, 2010

Last week I posted an item on Bill Moyers’ PBS rant about Citizens United, calling out the lack of any proof behind his hysterical assertion that there’s now a “crooked sign hanging on every courthouse in America reading 'Justice for Sale.'" The Gavel Grabbers swooned, but also offered no proof to back up Moyers' absurd assertion.

Well it seems I have an ally from an unlikely source: The American Bar Association.

In a letter posted on Gavel Grab yesterday, William Weisenberg, chairman of the ABA's Standing Committee on Judicial Independence, writes that he "strongly disagree[s]" with Moyers' statement and that he "view[s] this characterization of our Courts as impugning the integrity of our court system and the thousands of men and women who daily don their robes and administer justice in a fair and impartial manner."

Picking apart Moyers was easy game for Weisenberg, but his next paragraph left me speechless:

"Our partners share the view, demonstrated in polling, that there is a serious 'perception' [his quotes] that financial support influences judicial decision-making. It is one thing to address the perception that you, JAS [Justice at Stake], our partners, and the ABA speak to often in our quest to drive money out of judicial selection. It is another thing to speak in terms of justice for sale as if it were a common thing."

Now, you're probably thinking ... you lost your breath over THAT?

But what we have here is an admission from one of the High Priests of the movement that the whole gavel grabbing, multi-million dollar, "merit" selection campaign is based entirely on thin air – on a "perception" – not on any real, provable evidence that judges in mass numbers are selling their votes for cash. Justice in America is not "for sale" – it's not even "at stake."

Which raises two interesting questions:

1. Wouldn't it be better for Justice at Stake to spend George Soros' hedge fund millions to dispel the false "perception" that justice is for sale?
2. Will William Weisenberg write another letter to former U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor rebutting her assertion that elected judges cannot "dispense law without prejudice?"

Legal Reform Victory in SC

March 4, 2010

Carter Wood, once again, is on top of the latest legal reform news - this time with his ShopFloor hat on. Yesterday legislators in the South Carolina House overwhelmingly passed legal reform legislation in an effort to attract more business and capital investment to the state.

For more on the state of legal reform efforts in South Carolina, check out the South Carolina Civil Justice Coalition headed up by Cam Crawford. Cam and his team have been fighting the good fight in SC for some years now and aim to make the Palmetto State one of the nation's top 25 states based on legal climate. Yesterday's action by the state legislature is a step in that direction.

AG Blumenthal: Lawsuits “Create Jobs”

March 4, 2010

Carter Wood over at Point of Law posted a little gem yesterday. Wood reports that Richard Blumenthal, Connecticut’s long-time attorney general and now a candidate for governor, recently made the extraordinary claim that all those lawsuits he’s filed over the years “actually create jobs.” Well, knock me over with a feather.

For those interested in something closer to the actual truth, I refer you to a report that Pacific Research Institute’s Lawrence McQuillan authored. McQuillan’s study catalogs the devastating impact of excessive litigation on our economy - including thousands of lost jobs.

Ohio Judicial Elections: Common Sense From Ohio’s Bench

March 3, 2010

Ohio Chief Justice Thomas Moyer’s campaign to abolish democratic judicial elections has run into strong opposition from his colleagues on the state Supreme Court. In a Columbus Dispatch article, Justice Evelyn Lundberg Stratton said judicial elections are “open and transparent” and made the common sense observation that:

“... people are smart enough and there’s enough information out there for them to make those judgments about who should serve on the court.”

Justice Maureen O’Connor seconded the motion:

“No method for judicial selection is ideal and without problems. I believe that we should work with the elective system and concentrate on educating the public about the qualifications, records and philosophies of each candidate. The public can then decide who deserves their vote, trust and confidence.”

Justice Paul Pfeifer added that “merit” selection “is going nowhere” in Ohio.

In an era where judges routinely look down on the people they serve (see my post on Judge H. Lee Sarokin), it’s refreshing to hear from judges who understand that in a democracy the people are sovereign.

“Danger! Tort reform legislation effective November 1. File your lawsuits now!”

So writes the Oklahoma City law firm of Merritt & Associates in a recent email to ... well, to whoever might want to file a frivolous case before tort reform legislation takes effect in Oklahoma. (hat tip to BixbyBulletin.com for uncovering the email)

I think I see a pit of sidewinders yonder out to make a killing. This isn't about justice at all. It's about lining their pockets with contingency fee dough. Maybe the Merritt laww firm should change it's name to “No Merit and Associates.”

Oklahoma Representative Dan Sullivan called the email “an opportunistic attempt to get lawsuits on the books, regardless of their merit,” which is true of course. Rep. Sullivan, Senate leader Glenn Coffee and the State Chamber of Oklahoma were all recognized recently by the American Tort Reform Association for their roles in finally bringing tort reform across the goal line against the fierce defense of the state's powerful trial bar. Which reminds me ... BYU quarterback Max Hall, who engineered a late touchdown drive to defeat the highly-ranked Oklahoma Sooners, might want to stay away from the state until after November.

And anybody with a cup of hot coffee, now is your time to just sue somebody...so the personal injury lawyers can sleep at night.

Trial Bar Chases Jobs Out Of Oklahoma

April 16, 2009

In recent months, both Tyson Foods and Conoco Phillips have announced plans to shift a total of more than 1,300 jobs out of Oklahoma and relocate them to other states. More fall out from a bad economy? No, these job losses come courtesy of the state's powerful trial bar.

"It appears Oklahoma is firmly committed to the trial lawyer lobby instead of industry, jobs and prosperity," writes Steve Fair, in the OKGazette.com. Fair, who also blogs at stevefair.blogspot.com, blames the trial bar for blocking reform of Oklahoma's antiquated workman's compensation system. Oklahoma "still uses the court system to settle worker comp disputes, which creates high premiums for employers and reduced payments to injured workers."

Oklahoma's Republican controlled legislature is trying to pass legislation (again) that would reduce job-killing lawsuits by establishing reasonable limits on non-economic damages and curbing lottery-sized legal fees to greedy trial lawyers. But, as Fair notes, Democrat Governor Brad Henry vetoed a similar bill two years ago and shows little interest in letting this one become law, despite his campaign rhetoric supporting these common sense reforms.

You'd think in today's dire economy political leaders would united and pull out all the stops to prevent jobs from fleeing their states. Many governors now recognize that a fair and predictable legal climate is just as critical as a favorable tax climate and an educated workforce when it comes to luring (or just keeping) jobs to their states. By blocking worker comp and legal reform, Oklahoma trial layers are sending the message to business and the country that they're more interested in preserving lawsuits than in preserving jobs.

Taking A Stand Against Trial Lawyer Greed In Oklahoma

February 19, 2009

The Oklahoma House of Representatives took the first step toward reining in obscene trial lawyer fees by approving legislation to cap the trial bar's rake at 33.3% on the first $1 million and 20% on the rest, a reduction from the current "limit" of 50%. That means a theoretical plaintiff winning a $5 million judgment or settlement would be awarded at least $3.8 – a wealth shift of about $1.4 million from trial lawyers to plaintiffs. If the bill passes the Senate, it will go to the people of Oklahoma for a vote.

Oklahoma

June 13, 2008

The Tulsa Beacon has a strong editorial taking Oklahoma lawmakers to task for failing to enact legal reforms. Money quote:

Where is [Tulsa] Mayor Kathy Taylor's political courage? Where is her attempt to broaden the economic base by insisting that Oklahoma reform its legal and workers' compensation system? Are we just going to be bypassed again by others? The good question should be was Oklahoma even considered by Toyota for the auto plant [that went to Mississippi after tort reform]?

Oklahoma At A Competitive Disadvantage

May 19, 2008

Fair and Biased, the blog run by Steve Fair, reports today on the trial bar's success at not only blocking tort reform in Oklahoma, but worker's comp reform, as well.

Two major issues that were not resolved this legislature session were tort reform and workers comp reform. Interrelated, they are two issues opposed by the powerful trial lawyer lobby.... Once again Oklahoma is placed at a competitive disadvantage vs. surrounding states in recruiting business and industry and new jobs to the state because Democrats want to appease the powerful trial lawyer lobby.

But Fair also gives us a glimmer of hope:

With the distinct likelihood of Republicans taking over the State Senate in November, all I can say is- Wait till next year!

Broken Promises Set Back Tort Reform in Oklahoma

May 19, 2008

Despite campaigning on promises to fix Oklahoma's tort system, Gov. Brad Henry has again broken his vow to curb frivolous lawsuits. Last week, the Oklahoma House voted 55-42 to override Henry's veto – but fell 13 votes short of the necessary 2/3rds.

William Pitts of the Journal Record reviews the history of Gov. Henry's broken tort reform promises.

CEO Alarm: The Real Cost Of State Liability

Excessive tort litigation costs are estimated at $589 billion, but state-level liability lawsuits cost more than just indemnities, legal fees and G/A. There are substantial hidden costs.

Liability Crisis Hidden Costs

Damage to share value and reputation. Increasingly, the plaintiff's bar is mounting PR campaigns and analyst briefings designed to drive down share value to force companies to settle even when they've done nothing wrong:

- Merck lost $40 billion in value after the filing of Vioxx lawsuits.
- The HMO industry lost $12 billion in value in one day after a Dickie Scruggs press conference.
- Tort lawsuits reduce stockholder wealth by $684 billion each year.

Higher litigation reserves, insurance costs and employee health care costs.

- $124 billion of total health care costs is attributable to defensive medicine/litigation concerns. The lions share falls on employers that provide employee health insurance.

Stunted innovation/lost sales.

- Inhibited research and development results in a $367 billion annual loss in sales of new products.

The Bottom Line

Liability Reform Objectives

- 1. Reduce the risk of "bet the company" lawsuits and lawsuits that threaten share value, company reputation or product image.
- 2. Slow the increase and eventually reduce unwarranted litigation costs.

Liability Reform Strategies

- 1. Selection of "rule of law" state court judges, governors, legislators and attorneys general.
- 2. Legislation and court rules that end perverse incentives for meritless lawsuits and restore fairness and predictability.
- 3. Engage the public so they understand how a broken legal system hurts them every day.
